Your Directors are of the opinion that all resolutions which are to be proposed at the AGM are in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders and therefore unanimously recommend that you vote in favour of the resolutions.

Authority to allot shares (Resolution 15)

The purpose of Resolution 15 is to renew the Directors' power to allot shares.

The authority in Resolution 15 will allow the Directors to allot new shares and grant rights to subscribe for, or convert other securities into shares to a nominal value of £179,460,000, which is equivalent to approximately one third of the total issued ordinary share capital of the Company, exclusive of treasury shares, as at 15 May 2012.

The Directors have no present intention of exercising the authority to be given by Resolution 15 other than in connection with employee share and incentive plans. The Directors will consider issuing shares if they believe it would be appropriate to do so in respect of business opportunities that arise consistent with the Company's strategic objectives.

If the resolution is passed, the authority will expire on the earlier of the end of the AGM in 2013 or on 17 September 2013.

Disapplication of pre-emption rights (Resolution 16)

If the Directors wish to allot new shares and other equity securities, or sell treasury shares, for cash (other than in connection with an employee share plan), company law requires that these shares are offered first to shareholders in proportion to their existing holdings.

The purpose of Resolution 16 is to authorise Directors to allot new shares pursuant to the authority given by Resolution 15, or sell treasury shares, for cash in connection with a pre-emptive offer or otherwise up to a nominal value of £26,918,000, equivalent to 5 per cent of the total issued ordinary share capital of the Company as at 15 May 2012, in each case without the shares first being offered to existing shareholders in proportion to their existing holdings.

The Board considers the authority in Resolution 16 to be appropriate in order to allow the Company flexibility to finance business opportunities or to conduct a pre-emptive offer or rights issue without the need to comply with the strict requirements of the statutory pre-emption provisions.

The Board intends to adhere to the provisions in the Pre-emption Group's Statement of Principles not to allot shares for cash on a non pre-emptive basis (other than pursuant to a rights issue or pre-emptive offer) in excess of an amount equal to 7.5 per cent of the total issued ordinary share capital of the Company within a rolling three-year period without prior consultation with shareholders.

Special business to be conducted at the AGM

In addition to the ordinary business of the Company, this year there will be the following items of special business at the AGM.

Political donations and expenditure (Resolution 17)

Part 14 of the 2006 Act requires companies to obtain shareholders' authority for donations to registered political parties and other political organisations totalling more than £5,000 in any 12 month period, and for any political expenditure, subject to limited exceptions.

The Company has a policy that it does not make donations to, or incur expenditure on behalf of, political parties, other political organisations or independent election candidates. However, the 2006 Act contains restrictions on companies making political donations or incurring political expenditure and it defines these terms very widely, such that activities that form part of the normal relationship between the Company and bodies concerned with policy review, law reform and other business matters affecting the Company may be included. Such activities, which are in shareholders' interests for the Company to conduct, are not designed to support or imply support for a particular political party, other political organisation or independent election candidate. The Company believes that the authority proposed under this Resolution is necessary to ensure that it does not commit any technical breach that could arise from the uncertainty generated by the wide definitions contained within the 2006 Act when carrying out activities in the furtherance of its legitimate business interests.

The Company made no political donations in 2011/12.

Share purchase (Resolution 18)

The 2006 Act permits a company to purchase its own shares provided that the purchase has been authorised by the company in general meeting. Whilst the Directors have no present intention of making such purchases, it is common practice for listed companies to seek such authority and the Directors consider that it is prudent for them to do so.

Resolution 18, if passed, would give the Company the authority to purchase its own issued ordinary shares of 28⁴/₇ pence each at a price (exclusive of expenses) of not less than 28⁴/₇ pence per share (being the nominal value of the ordinary shares) and not more than the higher of 105 per cent above the average of the middle market quotations of the Company's shares as shown in the London Stock Exchange Daily Official List for the five business days before the purchase is made, the highest current independent bid for the Company's ordinary shares on the London Stock Exchange at the time of the purchase and the price of the last independent trade in the shares on the London Stock Exchange at the time of purchase. The authority is for the purchase of a maximum number of 188,433,000 shares, being approximately 10 per cent of the Company's present issued ordinary share capital and will expire at the end of the AGM in 2013 or on 17 September 2013, whichever is the earlier. The Directors presently intend that a resolution to renew this authority will be proposed at each succeeding AGM.

The Directors would not propose to exercise their authority to make purchases unless the expected effect of the purchase would be to increase the earnings per share of the remaining shares in the capital of the Company and unless the purchase is generally in the best interest of the shareholders.

Any shares purchased under this authority may be either treated as cancelled and the number of shares in issue reduced accordingly, or held as treasury shares in accordance with the 2006 Act. The 2006 Act allows listed companies, with authorisation from shareholders, to buy and hold their shares instead of cancelling them immediately. Shares purchased under this authority and held in treasury can in the future be cancelled, re-sold or used to provide shares for employee share plans. No treasury shares are held by the Company as at the date of this notice and it is not intended that any shares purchased pursuant to this authority will be held in treasury although the decision whether to cancel any shares purchased by the Company or hold such shares as treasury shares, could be made by the Directors at the time of the purchase, on the basis of shareholders' best interests.

The total number of options to subscribe for shares outstanding as at 15 May 2012 was 70,103,183 being the latest practicable date prior to the publication of this notice. This represents 3.7 per cent of the issued ordinary share capital at that date. If the Company were to buy back the maximum number of shares permitted pursuant to this Resolution, then the total number of options to subscribe for shares as at 15 May 2012 would represent 4.1 per cent of the reduced issued ordinary share capital.

Notice of general meetings (Resolution 19)

Under the 2006 Act, all general meetings must be held on 21 days' notice unless shareholders approve a shorter notice period, which cannot however be less than 14 clear days (AGMs will continue to be held on at least 21 clear days' notice). Before the law was amended in 2009, the Company was able to call general meetings (other than AGMs) on 14 clear days' notice without obtaining such shareholder approval. In order to preserve this ability, Resolution 19 seeks such approval. The approval will be effective until the Company's next AGM, when it is intended that a similar resolution will be proposed.

You should note that the changes to the 2006 Act mean that, in order to be able to call a general meeting on less than 21 clear days' notice, the Company must make a means of electronic voting available to all shareholders for that meeting. The shorter notice period would not be used as a matter of routine for such meetings, but only where the flexibility is merited by the business of the meeting and is thought to be in the interests of shareholders as a whole.

Meeting formalities and voting

Attending the Annual General Meeting

To be entitled to attend and vote at the meeting (and for the purposes of determining the number of votes shareholders may cast), shareholders must be entered on the Company's register of members at 11.00am on Monday, 9 July 2012 or, if the meeting is adjourned, shareholders must be entered on the Company's register of members at 6.00pm on the day two days before the time fixed for the adjourned meeting.

The total number of issued ordinary shares in the Company on 15 May 2012, which is the latest practicable date before the publication of this document is 1,884,330,894. Therefore, the total number of votes exercisable as at 15 May 2012 is 1,884,330,894. On a vote by show of hands every member who is present has one vote and every proxy present who has been duly appointed by a member entitled to vote has one vote. On a poll vote every member who is present in person or by proxy has one vote for every ordinary share of which they are the holder.

We will take all resolutions on a poll vote which is in line with best practice. On a poll, each shareholder has one vote for every share he or she holds. The results of the voting on the resolutions will be posted on the Company's website after the meeting and notified to the UK Listing Authority.

Voting and proxies

Whether or not you propose to attend the AGM in person, you are requested to complete and return the form of proxy to Computershare Investor Services PLC, The Pavilions, Bridgwater Road, Bristol BS99 6ZY to arrive as soon as possible but in any event not later than 11.00am on Monday, 9 July 2012. The completion and return of the form of proxy will not prevent you from attending and voting at the meeting if you so wish.

A shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the AGM is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend, speak and vote instead of him, provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by that shareholder. A proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company. Further details are given on the accompanying proxy card.

The 'vote withheld' option is provided on the proxy card to enable you to abstain on any particular resolution. However, it should be noted that a 'vote withheld' is not a vote in law and will not be counted in the calculation of the proportion of votes 'for' and 'against' a resolution.

Although this Notice of Annual General Meeting is sent to beneficial owners of shares under the Sainsbury's Share Purchase Plan, only holders of ordinary shares or their proxy are entitled to attend and vote at the meeting.

If you are not a shareholder but enjoy "information rights" you should contact the person who nominated you to receive these rights to see if the agreement you have with them gives you the right to be appointed as a proxy. If you don't have this right, or do not wish to exercise it, you may still have the right to tell the person who nominated you how you would like them to vote.

The right to appoint a proxy does not apply to persons whose shares are held on their behalf by another person and who have been nominated to receive communications from the Company in accordance with Section 146 of the 2006 Act ("Nominated Persons"). Nominated Persons may have a right under an agreement with the member who holds the shares on their behalf to be appointed (or to have someone else appointed) as a proxy. Alternatively, if Nominated Persons do not have such a right, or do not wish to exercise it, they may have a right under such an agreement to give instructions to the person holding the shares as to the exercise of voting rights.

Corporate representatives

A corporate shareholder may authorise a person to act as its representative(s) at the AGM. In accordance with the provisions of the 2006 Act, each such representative may exercise (on behalf of the corporate) the same powers as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual shareholder of the Company, provided that they do not do so in relation to the same shares. It is no longer necessary to nominate a designated corporate representative.

Website statement

Shareholders should note that, under Section 527 of the 2006 Act, shareholders meeting the threshold requirements set out in that section have the right to require the Company to publish on a website a statement setting out any matter relating to: (i) the audit of the Company's accounts (including the auditor's report and the conduct of the audit) that are to be laid before the Annual General Meeting for the financial year beginning on 20 March 2011 or (ii) any circumstance connected with an auditor of the Company appointed for the financial year beginning on 20 March 2011 ceasing to hold office since the previous meeting at which annual accounts and reports were laid. The Company may not require the shareholders requesting any such website publication to pay its expenses in complying with Sections 527 or 528 (requirements as to website availability) of the 2006 Act. Where the Company is required to place a statement on a website under Section 527 of the 2006 Act, it must forward the statement to the Company's auditor not later than the time when it makes the statement available on the website. The business which may be dealt with at the Annual General Meeting for the relevant financial year includes any statement that the Company has been required under Section 527 of the 2006 Act to publish on a website.

Right to ask questions

Any shareholder attending the meeting has the right to ask questions. The Company must answer any such question relating to the business being dealt with at the meeting but no such answer need be given if (a) to do so would interfere unduly with the preparation for the meeting or involve the disclosure of confidential information, (b) the answer has already been given on a website in the form of an answer to a question, or (c) it is undesirable in the interests of the Company or the good order of the meeting that the question be answered.

Electronic voting

If you would like to submit your proxy vote via the internet, you can do so by accessing our Registrar's website at www.eproxyappointment.com so as to be received no later than 11.00am on Monday, 9 July 2012. You will require the meeting Control Number, your unique PIN (which will expire at the end of the voting period) and your Shareholder Reference Number ("SRN"), printed on the proxy card, in order to log in and submit your proxy vote electronically.

You can access this site from any internet enabled PC.

CREST voting facility

Those shareholders who hold shares through CREST may choose to appoint a proxy or proxies using CREST. The CREST Proxy Instruction must be properly authenticated in accordance with Euroclear's specifications and must contain the information required for such instruction as described in the CREST Manual available via www.euroclear.com/CREST. Personal or sponsored members and those with a voting service provider should request the sponsor or provider to take the appropriate action.

Time of receipt will be taken to be the time (as determined by the timestamp applied to the message by the CREST Applications Host) from which our Registrars are able to retrieve the message by enquiry to CREST in the manner prescribed by CREST. After this time any change of instructions to a proxy appointed through CREST should be communicated to him by other means. The Directors may treat a CREST Proxy Instruction which purports to be or is expressed to be sent on behalf of a shareholder as sufficient evidence of the authority of the person sending that instruction to send it on behalf of the holder.

CREST Proxy Instructions must be received by our Registrar (ID 3RA50) by 11.00am on Monday, 9 July 2012.

CREST members (and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors or voting service providers) should note that Euroclear does not make available special procedures in CREST for any particular messages. Normal system timings and limitations will therefore apply in relation to the input of CREST Proxy Instructions. It is the responsibility of the CREST member concerned to take (or, if the CREST member is a CREST personal member or sponsored member or has appointed a voting service provider, to procure that his CREST sponsor or voting service provider takes) such action as shall be necessary to ensure that a message is transmitted by means of the CREST system by any particular time. In this connection, CREST members (and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors or voting service providers) are referred, in particular, to those sections of the CREST Manual concerning practical limitations of the CREST system and timings.

The Company may treat as invalid a CREST Proxy Instruction in the circumstances set out in Regulation 35(5)(a) of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001.

Disabled shareholders

Stewards have been allocated to assist disabled shareholders and will be stationed at the registration desk.
